PRESIDENT DR. JUDY L. BONNER

Dr. Judith L. Bonner was named the 28th president of The University of Alabama on November 1, 2012. Founded in 1831, the University is the state's flagship and a student-centered comprehensive research university.

Dr. Bonner served as interim president from March 5 until August 31, 2012. She was promoted to executive vice president and provost on April 1, 2006, after serving as provost and vice president for Academic Affairs since March 2003. During the decade she served as provost, the University underwent transformational change growing from 19,000 students in 2003 to more than 33,600 in 2012. Dr. Bonner joined the faculty at The University of Alabama in 1981 as associate professor and head of the department of human nutrition and hospitality. She served as assistant academic vice president from 1985-1990 and as special assistant to the president from 1989-91. Promoted to professor in 1988, she was named dean of the College of Human Environmental Sciences in 1989 and held that position until 2003. Prior to coming to UA, she held faculty appointments in the department of pediatrics at UAB and the department of medical dietetics at The Ohio State University.

Dr. Bonner earned her bachelor's and master's degrees from The University of Alabama and her Ph.D. from The Ohio State University, all in nutrition. Her research, focused on nutritional needs of chronically ill children and on eating disorders, has resulted in numerous publications.

Dr. Bonner is an active member of civic, scientific and professional organizations. Among other awards and honors, her accolades include the Distinguished Alumni Award from The Ohio State University, the AHEA Leader Award and the award for Outstanding Dietitian for the state of Alabama.

BILL BATTLE

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

William R. "Bill" Battle was named Director of Athletics at The University of Alabama on Friday, March 22, 2013, succeeding Mal Moore who had held the position since November, 1999. Battle joined the Crimson Tide after a career as a college football coach and entrepreneur that consistently was hallmarked by innovation and foresight.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Battle attended The University of Alabama on a football scholarship and enjoyed a successful playing career as a three-year starter at end for the Crimson Tide under legendary head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1960-62. Battle was a member of Bryant's first national championship team at Alabama in 1961. Generally regarded as the team's best end throughout his playing career, he came to Tuscaloosa after starring in three sports at Birmingham's West End High School.

An excellent student, Battle holds a bachelor's degree from The University of Alabama and a master's degree from The University of Oklahoma. He was an Academic All-SEC selection as a senior in 1962 and was selected to play in the Senior Bowl all-star game in Mobile, Ala., in January of 1963. Battle was named first team tight end and second team defensive end on The University of Alabama All Decade Team of the 1960s.

Battle entered the coaching profession as a graduate assistant at The University of Oklahoma in 1963 under famed head coach Bud Wilkinson. In 1964 and 1965, he served as an assistant coach at the United States Military Academy while serving a two-year military tour. In 1966, he moved on to the University of Tennessee, where he served as an assistant coach under head coach Doug Dickey for four seasons (1966-69) until he was named head coach of the Volunteers in 1970. When he was named head coach, Battle was the youngest head coach in college football at the age of 28.

During his seven-year tenure as the Tennessee head coach (1970-76), Battle's teams went 59-22-2, finished three seasons ranked in the nation's top 10 among five top-20 finishes and won four out of five bowl games. Battle's Tennessee teams won 11 games once (1970) and at least 10 games in three different seasons (1970, 1971 and 1972). His first Tennessee team finished the season ranked fourth in both national polls. The 1971 team finished ninth in both national polls while his 1972 Tennessee squad had a final ranking of eighth by the Associated Press and 11th in the coaches' poll.

Battle began a career in the private sector after his coaching career ended. He held various positions within Circle S Industries in Selma, Ala., and served as president of two different companies, as well as vice chairman of the Circle S Holding Company board. During his six years at Circle S, the organization grew from two companies earning $12 million in annual sales to 10 companies earning $60 million.

Battle founded The Collegiate Licensing Company (CLC) in 1981, and he served as president and chief executive officer (CEO) until 2002. He also served as chairman of the board of Licensing Partners International (LPI), which was created in 2001 to represent the licensing interests of non-collegiate sports properties, as well as corporate and entertainment properties.

A 1981 inductee into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, Battle was inducted as the first member in the charter class of the National Collegiate Licensing Association Hall of Fame in 2000. He received the 2005 Paul W. Bryant Alumni Athlete Award at The University of Alabama and was inducted into the International Licensing Industry Merchandisers Association (LIMA) Hall of Fame in 2008.

Battle received a National Football Foundation award in December 2008 for Outstanding Contributions to Amateur Football. In June 2010, he was inducted into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators' (NACMA) Hall of Fame and later was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, receiving its Lifetime Achievement Award in 2011. Battle currently serves on the boards of the Bank of North Georgia, the Bryant-Jordan Student-Athlete Foundation, The University of Alabama A-Club Educational & Charitable Foundation, the Crimson Tide Foundation, and the National Football Foundation.

Battle's wife Mary is a summa cum laude graduate of the University of Texas School of Nursing, with a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing. She earned a Masters of Science in healthcare administration from the University of Alabama-Birmingham. Mary currently serves on the board of WellStar Health Systems of Atlanta, Ga., where she also serves on the WellStar's Foundation Board, in addition to serving as chairperson of WellStar's Major Gifts Committee. A member of the Arthritis Foundation of Birmingham, she is active in fundraising for research of rheumatoid arthritis.

The Battles have been active in fundraising for UAB's Department of Rheumatology and the school's Stem Cell Institute. In their leisure time, the Battles enjoy life on their ranch in Georgia. Mary is an avid equestrian while Bill enjoys working on various projects around the ranch.

CRIMSON TIDE

BASKETBALL

94 FEET BOTH WAYS

PLAYER LOCKERROOM

The Crimson Tide basketball program already boasts one of the finest competition venues in the nation and the team also has one of the finest basketball facilities in its possession. Housed behind a pair of elegantly frosted glass doors emblazoned with the Tide's signature 'A' lies a state-of-the-art space that will give the current players everything they need for success on the court and in the classroom, while also providing a crown jewel for the program in attracting the nation's top talent.

"I am extremely excited about the development of a dedicated practice facility for men's basketball," head coach Anthony Grant said. "I think this speaks volumes to the commitment our administration has to providing the resources necessary for our players and coaches to prepare for success. It is an incredible resource to our program in a variety of ways."

Upon entering the facility in the southeast corner of Coleman Coliseum, players will have a large, open and well-lit area furnished with tables, chairs, study carrels and computer work stations to pursue their academic courses, work with the same intensity and focus exhibited on the court. Adjacent to this area is the team's player lounge that features a more laid-back environment, complete with over-sized leather chairs and couches, two large flat-screen televisions, a custom pool table and juice bar to help the team hydrate and nourish their bodies before and after practice.

The rest of the facility is all business with a circular film room featuring comfortable stadium seating angled around a large projection screen. The room is equipped with the finest suite of video analysis software and tools designed to give the Tide a competitive scouting advantage against every opponent on its schedule. Next to the team's film room is the heart of the facility, the Tide's locker room. With a similar circular design, the Tide's detailed lockers constructed out of richly polished wood surround an Alabama logo weaved into the room's carpet. Each player has his own deep locker with adequate space to accommodate all his personal and athletic needs. The locker room also contains shower and restroom facility featuring detailed tile and fixtures designed for a basketball player's physique. There is an equally impressive locker room for coaches and staff members as well as a conference room to develop and evaluate practice and game plans.

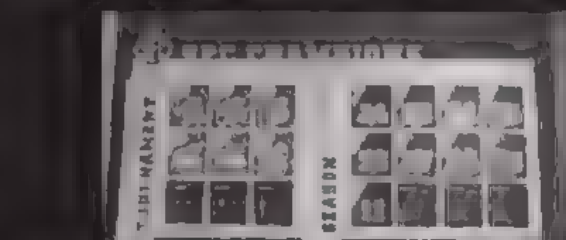

Just steps outside the locker room is the team's dedicated equipment room that gives each player easy access to his practice equipment and jersey. The equipment room also keeps a fully stocked line of Nike shoes and performance apparel to ensure that each Tide player is outfitted in the finest equipment and athletic gear in the world.

As much as the player's comfort are taken care of in the facility, the bumps and bruises that come along with playing in the Southeastern Conference are also addressed as a complete training room is also enclosed within the facility's confines. The training room addresses all of the team's medical needs with taping tables, evaluation stations and the most modern physical rehabilitation equipment available as well as a full-size cold tub and whirlpool to keep each player's body capable of performing at an elite level.

These various additions address the equally varied needs of the student-athletes devoting equal space to the team's academic, athletic and medical demands in a facility that is sure to give the current roster and generations of future UA players tools to everyday success.

COLEMAN COLISEUM

Since 1968, Coleman Coliseum has served as the home court of the Crimson Tide basketball team and the venerable structure has seen more than 450 Alabama wins under its distinctive arched roof.

Originally known as Memorial Coliseum, it remains one of college basketball's finest facilities and was decades ahead of its time when originally constructed at a cost of $4.2 million. The structure occupies two acres of land, with the roof reaching 90 feet above the playing surface and almost 100,000 square feet of space in the main seating bowl. At its inception, the Coliseum's capacity of 15,032 was easily the biggest in the Southeastern Conference and the fifth largest in the nation.

In 1988, the arena was re-dedicated as Coleman Coliseum in honor of Jeff Coleman, a longtime Crimson Tide historian, business manager and alumni director, who served on the committee that oversaw the Coliseum's planning and construction.

Coleman Coliseum saw its greatest transformation prior to the 2005-06 season, when the entire facility was nearly gutted and updated in grand fashion. Behind a bold modernized facade, the interior lobbies and concourses were expanded and upgraded along with offices, locker rooms and support facilities. In the main seating area, 15,316 new seats, all theater style and many of them padded, welcomed raucous crowds along with a new club area along the east side of the court. The improvements didn't stop there, as the consistently evolving facility continues to receive upgrades each season to keep it at the forefront of the nation's basketball facilities. The most recent included a new state-of-the-art high definition scoreboard hanging over center court and additional courtside seating to bring the facility's capacity to 15,383.

The Coliseum also features an auxiliary gym that houses two full-size courts at the team's disposal for practices and individual workouts. The facility also includes state-of-the-art video, training, weight and equipment rooms.

In addition to Alabama's 14 NBA first-round draft picks, the Coliseum has welcomed some of the finest players in college basketball history, ranging from Charles Barkley and Pete Maravich to Shaquille O'Neal.

INTRODUCTION

THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

Throughout the history of men's college basketball, the Southeastern Conference has captured 11 NCAA Championships and four NIT titles, making the SEC one of the nation's top basketball conferences.

SEC SUCCESS

- The SEC was 12-3 (.800) in the NCAA Tournament and 17-8 (.680) overall in postseason action
- The SEC's 12 NCAA Tournament wins were the most of any conference (Big Ten 10, Amer can 9)
- Kentucky made its second appearance in the NCAA championship game in three years (2012) and 12th overall
- The SEC has won three of the last nine NCAA titles (2006-Florida, 2007-Florida, 2012 Kentucky). No other conference has won more than two NCAA titles during that stretch
- Since 1993, the SEC has won six men's basketball national championships - Arkansas (1994), Kentucky (1996), Kentucky (1998), Florida (2006), Florida (2007) and Kentucky (2012). Only the ACC (6) has won as many men's basketball titles during this time
- Florida and Kentucky advanced to the Final Four and Tennessee made it to the Sweet 16. Kentucky made its 16th trip to the Final Four while Florida made its fifth appearance.
- The SEC has had at least one team advance to the Sweet 16 in 24 of the last 25 years.
- Florida, Kentucky and Tennessee advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. It is the most SEC teams in the Sweet 16 since 2007 when three teams (UF, UT, VU) advanced to the Regional Semifinals. It is the sixth time in the last nine years that multiple SEC teams have reached the Sweet 16
- The SEC has won at least 65 percent of its non-conference games since the league expanded to 12 teams in 1991-92

- Over the last seven NBA Drafts, 48 SEC players have heard their names called. Twenty-two of those were selected in the first round and two were the No. 1 overall pick.

IN THE POLLS

- The SEC is the one of only three conferences in the nation to have all of its teams ranked at least one week in the Associated Press top 25 (excluding preseason polls) since 1999-2000. Simply stated, every SEC team has been a top-25 team nationally at one point in the past 14 seasons.

EVERYBODY DANCE

- Every team in the SEC has made at least one NCAA Tournament appearance in the past 12 years, displaying the balance in the league

SEC AMONG FINAL FOUR LEADERS

- In the past 21 NCAA Tournaments (1993-2014), the SEC's 15 Final Four appearances are the second-most by any conference. Since 1993, five different SEC teams have reached the national semifinals, behind only the Big Ten and Big East's eight over the 21-year span. SEC teams have made a total of 25 all-time appearances in the Final Four.

SWEET 16 SUCCESS

- The Southeastern Conference has featured at least one team advancing to the Sweet 16 in 24 of the past 25 years. The SEC record for most teams advancing to the Sweet 16 is four, accomplished in 1986 (Alabama, Auburn, Kentucky, LSU) and in 1996 (Arkansas, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi State). Thirteen of the SEC's 14 members have advanced to the Sweet 16 since 1996.

BIG ATTENDANCE NUMBERS, AGAIN

- More than three million fans have witnessed SEC basketball in each of the past eight seasons.

THE SEC TOURNAMENT

The 2015 Southeastern Conference Men's Basketball Tournament returns to Bridgestone Arena in Nashville. It will be the fifth time that the arena has served as the host of the SEC Tournament, having also hosted in 2001, 2006, 2010 and 2013. Also the home of the NHL's Nashville Predators, Bridgestone Arena has the distinction of being one of the busiest venues in the United States over the past decade and a half, hosting more than 18 million guests during that time. Seating capacity is approximately 19,395 for basketball games.

The winner of the 13-game tournament receives the SEC's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The tournament seeds are determined by the 18-game conference schedule during the regular season. Teams are seeded 1-14 based on their regular season conference finish.

The SEC has shown extraordinary balance in the tournament, evidenced by the fact that a different school won the first seven titles after the renewal. The event has helped set the stage for SEC teams in the NCAA Tournament, as 22 of the tournament champions since the tournament resumed in 1979 have advanced to at least the Sweet 16. Three of the last 17 SEC Tournament champions have gone on to win the national championship. Since the renewal in 1979, the SEC Tournament Champion has failed to win at least one NCAA Tournament game only four times.

Kentucky leads the league with 27 SEC Tournament titles. Alabama is second with six, while Tennessee and Florida are tied for third with four. Mississippi State has three championship trophies while Georgia, Ole Miss and Vanderbilt have two. Arkansas, Auburn, LSU and former league member Georgia Tech have each won one SEC Tournament championship.

MEN'S BASKETBALL PREVIEW

By Christopher Walsh

The way things worked out University of Alabama men's basketball coach Anthony Grant could split his team into two sides and have the returning players square off against the new additions every day at practice if he wanted.

The split is that even with the 14-man roster, although it doesn't mean the Crimson Tide has added seven freshmen. Three are transfers who will be eligible to play this season.

"The benefit of those guys who were here last year, they got to practice every day, so they were already (familiar) with our terminology, their teammates," Grant said. "Then you add the four freshmen who have come in and those guys have done a really good job of getting accustomed to the team. Probably the biggest thing I've been impressed with our freshmen is they've come with a hard-working, humble attitude to want to be a part of something that's bigger than themselves. You don't always get that, especially with all the accolades that some of these guys come in with."

"Those guys were friends walking in the door."

Consequently, despite all the new faces Alabama will actually have a deeper and more veteran team than last season, when it went 13-19 overall and placed 10th in the Southeastern Conference at 7-11. But it also no longer has the services of guard Trevor Releford, who finished his career with 1,873 points, placing him fourth on the Crimson Tide's all-time scoring list.

Developing new leadership will be an obvious priority, although Grant isn't necessarily looking for senior guard Levi Randolph to fill that void by himself.

"Levi's always been one of our hardest working guys," Grant said. "I think it'll be shared responsibility on our team amongst a lot of people. I don't think it would be fair to put the onus on one person."

"I know everybody wants to say 'Who's the guy?' That's the common thing you get, the cookie-cutter way to do this is to say, 'Coach is going to rely on this guy to be the leader,' and 'Coach is going to rely on this guy to be the scorer.' I don't think we have a cookie-cutter team."

After he sustained a knee injury during training camp last year, things really began to click for Randolph down the stretch and he finished second on the Crimson Tide in points per game (9.6), offensive rebounds (3.6) and rebounds per game (3.8).

He's played in every game since arriving on campus, 101 total, and made 86 starts. The program's first player to earn consecutive first-team academic all-district honors, Randolph has already earned his degree in business marketing and is working on his master's.

"Levi is certainly a huge part of our team. He's certainly a guy who you look at what he's been able to accomplish, a guy who's impacted our program in a big way for the three years that he's been here," Grant added. "(He has) all the qualities that you want to terms of the culture you're trying to establish on a team. He's a great ambassador for our program, and I think certainly has the respect of all his teammates just because of his work ethic and who he is."

The other senior starter is Rodney Cooper, who also played in all 32 games last season and made 23 starts. He grabbed the most rebounds (4.9 rpg), and averaged 7.5 points.

"Coop played a lot last year out of position, as an undersized power forward as a pick-and-pop guy," Grant said. "He got a chance to play his natural position as a small forward at times as well, so just with a little bit more depth in the frontcourt I think it'll help Coop play to his strengths more."

"Last year Coop was a guy who was able to establish himself as a (player) who could affect the game in a lot of different ways. He's our returning leading rebounder, he did a very good job in terms of improving his assist-to-turnover ratio and making other guys better, understanding how to be effective from an defensive standpoint, being able to guard from multiple positions."

Guard Dakota Slaughter, a former walk-on who was given a scholarship last season, is a third senior, while guard Retin Obasohan is in his fourth year after redshirting his first season. He was third in team scoring with 9.5 ppg, and third in assists with 4.8 in 2013-14.

"Retin really got off to a great start for us last year," Grant said. "I think the second half of the season was different for him, we didn't realize that he had suffered an ankle injury during the summer of last year, and then re-aggravated it in mid-November, early December. That really kind of hampered him the rest of the season."

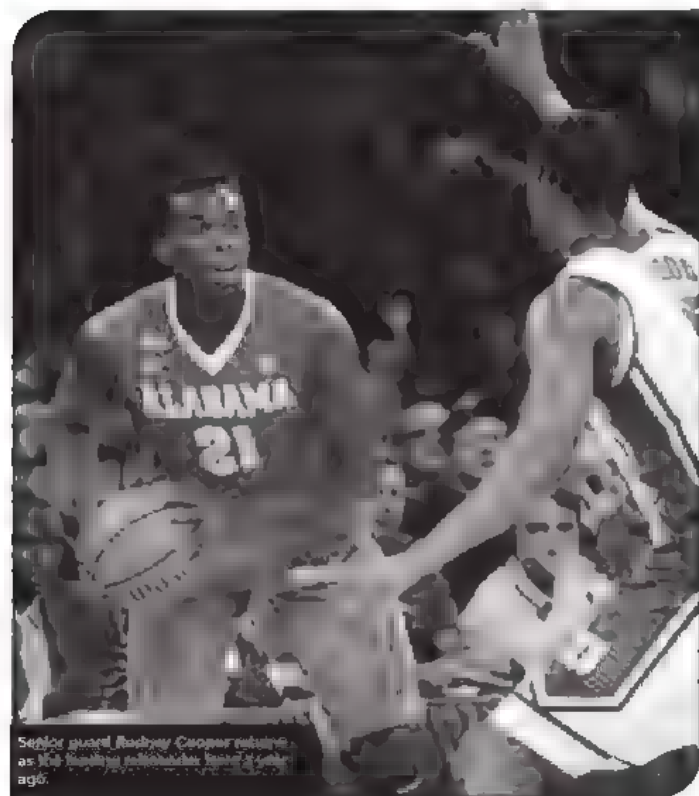

"We found out in late June or early July that he kept having issues with it and he ended up having surgery on it in the summer. He's been in recovery since early July. Him being healthy, being able to play at a 100 percent I think will make a big difference for him."

As for the frontcourt, Jimmie Taylor and Shannon Hale are back for their sophomore years and coaches will be looking for both forwards to make major contributions.

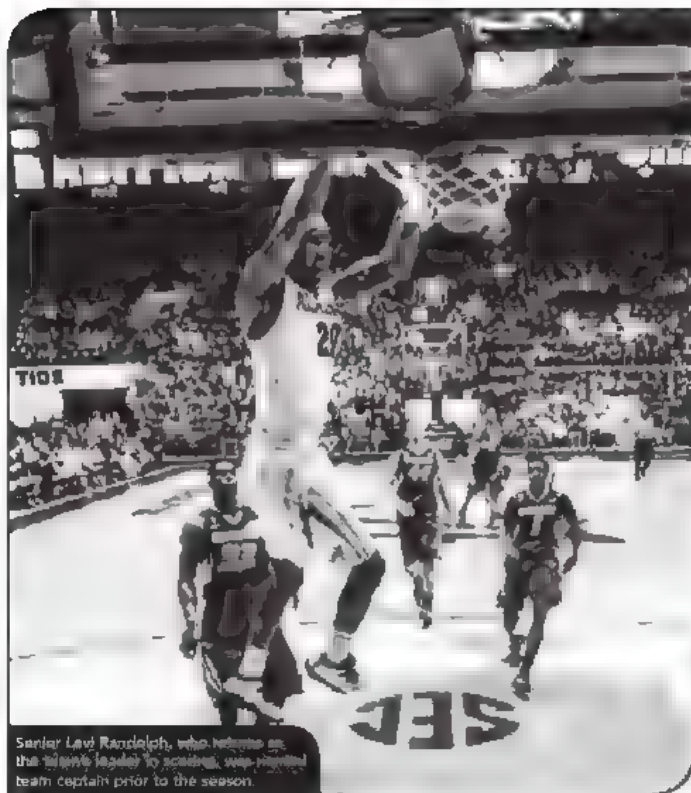

The 6-10 Taylor made 18 starts. He led the Crimson Tide in blocked shots with 40, was fourth in rebounds and averaged 3.0 points per game.

"The last third of the season he was our starting center and I think was continuing to get better with every game," Grant said. "He's walking in from a different vantage point this year, having been through the league and understanding the rigors of playing SEC basketball. I think that alone will help him, but he's worked extremely hard on his body, worked extremely hard on his game, and we expect great things out of Jimmie."

The 6-8 Hale was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team, but is coming off surgery to repair a foot fracture in April. He started 20 games and averaged 8.8 points.

Senior guard Rodney Cooper returns as the leading scorer the team's first game.

Senior Levi Randolph, who led the team in scoring, step-forward team captain prior to the season.

"For a number of games (he) really performed well for us," Grant said. "We need him to take that next step as a player in his understanding of how to impact winning from an offensive and defensive standpoint."

As for the veteran newcomers, guard Ricky Tarrant transferred last year from Tulane, where he scored more than 1,000 points during his first two seasons. While sitting out last year he practiced every day against Releford.

"We're excited about what Ricky brings to our team," Grant said. "Just another veteran who I think will be a big asset to us, especially when you lose a guy like Releford at that position. His experience in the backcourt will be valuable."

Grant is also excited about the addition of forward Michael Kessens, a 6-9 sophomore who transferred a year ago from Longwood University in Virginia.

"He spent some parts of last year recovering from some injuries, but we're hoping he'll be 100 percent," Grant said. "We think he's going to be a real big addition to our team. A big guy who has size and skill. We think we think he has a chance to be a huge impact to our team not only for what he'll bring talent-wise to the court but also his leadership, his competitiveness."

Alabama also welcomes freshmen guards Justin Coleman and Devin Mitchell and freshmen forwards Riley Norris and Jeff Garrett, who formed a top 25 recruiting class.

Coleman was named the Alabama Classic 5A boys Player of the Year at Wenonah High School in Birmingham. Mitchell averaged 16.7 points, 6.1 rebounds and 4.7 assists as a senior at Collins Hill in Suwanee, Ga. Norris, from Albertville, was named his team's MVP at the Alabama-Mississippi All-Star game. Garrett averaged 18.3 points, 10.1 rebounds, 4.0 assists and 2.0 blocks per game at Oldsmar Christian in Gadsden.

SEC Tournament Tie-Breaker Procedures

Teams will be seeded 1 through 16 in the SEC Men's Basketball Tournament bracket based upon the final regular season Conference standings. Teams that finished 1 through 4 in the final regular season standings will receive first- and second-round byes and teams that finished 5 through 10 will receive first-round byes in the SEC Men's Basketball Tournament.

1. Two-Team Tie. The following procedure will be used in the following order until the tie is broken:

- Win-loss results of head-to-head competition between the two teams
- Win-loss record of the two teams versus the No. 1 seed and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary
- Coin flip by the Commissioner

2. Three-Team Tie (or more). When three or more teams are tied, the following procedure will be used in the following order until the tie is broken. If the teams remain tied after a tiebreaker provision, the two-team tiebreaker formula will be used.

- Best winning percentage of games played among the tied teams. Example: Team A is 3-1, Team B is 2-2 and Team C is 3-3. Team A would be seeded highest, Team B second-highest and Team C lowest of the three.
- Best winning percentage of the tied teams versus the No. 1 seed and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary.
- If two teams remain, coin flip by the Commissioner.
- If three or more teams remain, draw by the Commissioner.

For the purpose of seeding, an institution is precluded from participating in the tournament, such institution will automatically be seeded last (the No. 16 seed) and then receive a bye. However, for the purpose of breaking ties, that team will remain where it finished in the regular season standings BEFORE being seeded last.

COACHES AND STAFF

ANTHONY GRANT

Head Coach

DAYTON, 1987

COACHES/STAFF

Anthony Grant enters his sixth season on the Crimson Tide bench in 2014-15. In five seasons since taking over as head coach of the Alabama men's basketball program, Grant looks to continue the momentum he has built during his time at the helm of the Crimson Tide.

Coming into the 2014-15 season, Grant has led his team to three postseason appearances, three 20-win campaigns and 99 victories (19.8 wins per season). The Tide has made the postseason in three of the last four years, including a pair of National Invitation Tournament berths (2011 NIT runner-up and 2013 NIT quarterfinalist), as well as an at-large selection to the 2012 NCAA Tournament. Alabama's first NCAA appearance since 2006.

Grant guided Alabama to three consecutive 20-win seasons from 2011-13, which is first time that has been achieved at Alabama since the 1990, 1991 and 1992 seasons – a span of just over 20 years. In fact, Grant has racked up 82 wins in the past four years (2011-14), going 82-56 (.594) over that span. Alabama's 40 SEC victories in the past four years are tied for third behind only Florida (55) and Kentucky (50).

In addition to leading Alabama to three straight 20-win campaigns, Grant also led the Tide to a winning record in Southeastern Conference play for three consecutive seasons (2011-13). It marked the first time since the 1994, 1995 and 1996 seasons that Alabama had three consecutive winning seasons against conference competition.

Grant owns a record of 99-71 (.582) during his five years at the Capstone, with an overall record of 175-96 (.646) during his eight seasons as a head coach. He has led his teams to six postseason appearances (three NCAAAs and three NITs) and six 20-win seasons during his Division I head coaching career.

Grant's squads typically display an aggressive, disruptive and disciplined style that has resulted in one of the top defenses in the nation during his tenure. In 2012-13, Alabama led the SEC in conference games with 9.1 steals per game while ranking second in the league and 18th nationally in scoring defense, holding the opposition to 58.4 points per game. The Tide held 24 of 36 opponents below 60 points during the 2012-13 season.

Grant's teams have been just as successful in the classroom, posting a perfect 1,000 score in the NCAA's Academic Progress Rate (APR), on two occasions (2009-10 and 2011-12). In all, six of Grant's teams (Alabama and VCU) have achieved that feat. Since Grant's arrival, the program boasts an average APR score of 985 during his tenure. Alabama led all SEC men's basketball programs in 2013 with six players named to the SEC Academic Roll.

Grant now has coached 10 all-conference selections and 24 SEC all-academic performers during his time at the Capstone. Furthermore, Alabama basketball currently ranks among the top 10 percent of all Division I men's basketball programs.

It was more of the same during the 2011-12 campaign, as Alabama surpassed 20 wins while the Tide's defense allowed an average of 58.1 points per game – the ninth-lowest average in the nation and sixth lowest in SEC history.

Alabama's defensive numbers in 2011-12 were even more impressive when taking into consideration the competition the Tide faced, as its strength of schedule was the 29th-toughest in the nation and the third-toughest in the SEC.

Following the first full year in Grant's system to acclimate themselves to producing 94 feet of pressure on both offense and defense, the 2010-11 Alabama team rebounded from a trying start to win 25 games and claim the SEC Western Division title. Fans helped make the Tide's home court one of the toughest in the nation, with a sterling 19-0 home record.

Three of those 2010-11 home wins came in the Tide's first postseason appearance since 2007, with a berth in the National Invitation Tournament. Harnessing the frustration of narrowly missing out on the NCAA field, the Tide cruised through its first three NIT opponents by an average of 15 points to advance to Madison Square Garden and the NIT semifinals for the sixth time in school history. A victory over Colorado propelled the Tide to its second NIT championship game where it fell to Wichita State.

Along the way to the NIT final, Grant's coaching style helped make the Tide one of the best defenses in SEC history, as Alabama allowed only 59.4 points per game, the top Grant took the reins of the Tide on March 29, 2009, after a three-year head coaching stint at Virginia Commonwealth University, where he led the Rams to a 24-10 record in 2008-09 and a No. 11 seed in the NCAA Tournament before falling to UCLA in the final seconds, 65-64. The NCAA appearance was the second in Grant's three-year tenure at VCU and third straight postseason appearance. He amassed a 76-25 (.752) record at VCU, with a 45-9 (.833) mark in Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) games.

Grant's VCU teams won three straight CAA regular-season championships and two CAA Tournament titles. His two NCAA Tournament appearances included a 79-77 upset win over Duke in the 2007 tournament. That season saw Grant lead the Rams to a program-best 28-7 record and CAA Coach of the Year honors.

DEVELOPING FUTURE NBA TALENT

As both a head coach and assistant coach, Anthony Grant has developed a reputation for preparing his players to play at the highest level, with 14 of his former players having been selected in the NBA draft.

Of those 14, 10 have been first-round selections with five coming in the top 10.

At VCU, Grant developed a pair future NBA stars in Eric Maynor and Larry Sanders.

Maynor was selected in the first round, 20th overall, by the Utah Jazz, and became VCU's first-ever first-round pick. Maynor became the 13th Grant-coached or recruited player and eighth first-rounder, to be selected in the NBA draft.

In 2010, Sanders became the 14th, as the virtually unknown forward was selected 15th overall by Milwaukee Bucks, following two years of tutelage under Grant and one under Shaka Smart.

Former Alabama players JaMychal Green and Tony Mitchell also have enjoyed success in the professional ranks.

Green signed a contract with the San Antonio Spurs prior to the 2014-15 season after averaging 12.3 points and 8.1 rebounds for the Austin Toros of the NBDL. Meanwhile, Mitchell is a two-time NBDL All-Star as he averaged 20.2 points per game for the Fort Wayne Mad Ants last year. He was named the 2013 NBDL Rookie of the Year.

During his 10 seasons at Florida, Grant also helped develop future NBA stars such as Joakim Noah, Al Horford, David Lee, Matt Bonner and Mike Miller, among others.

"He's a great coach, and he's able to communicate with his players how much he cares about them as people, which I think makes guys play harder for him. He's been the key to my success."

- Eric Maynor, Philadelphia 76ers

on the staff at Florida (1996-2006) under head coach Billy Donovan. Grant helped lead the Gators to their first national title in 2006 and laid the groundwork for Florida's 2007 national championship before departing for VCU.

While Grant was on the Florida staff, the Gators won the SEC Tournament in 2005 and 2006, captured three SEC Eastern Division titles (2000, 2001 and 2002) and earned back-to-back SEC Championship titles in 2000 and 2001. In 1999 and 2000, the program made its first back-to-back NCAA "Sweet 16" appearances in school history and appeared in the 2000 national championship game. During Grant's time in Gainesville, the Gators advanced to the NCAA Tournament eight straight seasons and compiled a 226-98 (.698) record.

Grant followed Donovan to Florida in 1996, after spending two seasons at Marshall (1994-96). Prior to that, Grant spent one season as an assistant coach at Stetson (1993-94). He earlier began his coaching career in the high school ranks in his hometown of Miami, where his teams won three state titles and were nationally ranked five times during Grant's time as an assistant coach at Miami Senior High School (1987-92). He went on to serve one season as head coach at Miami Central High School (1992-93).

Noted as a strong recruiter, Grant recruited and coached nine McDonald's All-Americans and eight NBA first-round draft picks at Florida. Prior to Grant arriving at Florida, the Gators had produced only two first-round picks in school history.

Before his coaching career began, Grant played his collegiate career at the University of Dayton (1983-87), guiding the Flyers to a 70-49 (.588) overall mark, a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances and one NIT berth. In his 105 appearances in a Flyer uniform, Grant averaged 11.6 points and 6.7 rebounds per game and was named the team's most valuable player as a senior.

Won three state titles and earned five national rankings

The Grant family: Anthony and his wife Christina, Javon Darnell, and sons J. to R) Anthony Jr., Malik and Preston.

John Brannen, who begins his sixth season on the Alabama coaching staff in 2014-15, begins his second season in the role of associate head coach after serving his first four seasons at the Capstone as the program's assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. He served in the same role on Anthony Grant's staff at VCU and now has been now a part of Grant's staff for a total of eight seasons.

Brannen has been an integral part on assisting the Crimson Tide to three 20 win seasons and three postseason appearances during his five years at the Capstone.

He helped the Tide to three consecutive 20-win seasons from 2011-13, which marked the first time that occurred since the 1990, 1991 and 1992 campaigns—a span of just over 20 years.

Brannen's efforts in recruiting also have drawn national acclaim, as he helped the Tide land the nation's No. 5 recruiting class in 2011 and the No. 21 ranked recruiting class in 2014.

During the 2012-13 season, Brannen helped Alabama to a 23-13 overall record (12-6 SEC) as the squad reached the quarterfinals of the NIT and finished second in the SEC. It marked the third consecutive season the Tide has reached the postseason.

In 2012, Brannen assisted in directing the Crimson Tide to the NCAA Tournament, the program's first NCAA appearance since the 2006 season. Alabama finished with a 21-12 mark and won the 2012 SEC West Division title.

In Brannen's second season at Alabama, he helped guide the Tide to a 25-12 record, an appearance in the NIT championship game and an SEC Western Division crown. Along the way the Tide's defense became one of the best in the nation while making Coleman Coliseum one of the most hostile home courts in the country with Alabama posting a 19-0 record at home.

Since 2006, Brannen has been a member of the prestigious Villa 7 consortium, which brings together the country's elite assistant basketball coaches in an effort to prepare the next generation of college basketball leaders.

In addition to his recruiting duties, Brannen focuses on player development, scouting and game preparation. He works particularly close with the Crimson Tide perimeter players.

During his time at VCU (2007-09), Brannen helped coach the Rams to three straight conference titles and postseason appearances, including two NCAA Tournaments.

At VCU, he continued to develop his reputation as one of the nation's premier recruiters in landing a 2007 recruiting class that was ranked in the top 20 nationally. Brannen followed that up with a 2008 class that was ranked third among mid-major programs by rivals.com and a 2009 class that was ranked fifth. His 2008 class went on to comprise the starting five of VCU's memorable Final Four run in 2011.

In addition to recruiting the Rams' championship teams, Brannen helped coach the program to a 76-25 record in his three seasons, with 12 players earning All-Colonial Athletic Association honors including two-time CAA Player of the Year Eric Maynor.

Brannen joined Grant at VCU after spending three seasons in the same capacity at St. Bonaventure, where he was the architect of the program's world-wide recruiting plan to help rebuild the Bonnies' program. In his first recruiting season, Brannen helped add six student athletes to the rapidly growing St. Bonaventure program.

Before his stint at St. Bonaventure, Brannen was the top assistant at Eastern Kentucky for three seasons. While there, he recruited back-to-back classes that were ranked in the top 100 nationally, led by the school's all-time leading scorer. He also was responsible for ECU's academic mentoring, scheduling, the program's summer camps, and strength and conditioning.

Brannen spent the 1999-2000 season at the College of Charleston, helping coach the squad to a 28-4 record and an appearance in the second round of the NCAA Division I Tournament.

A 1997 graduate of Marshall University with a degree in business management, Brannen played at Marshall when Grant was an assistant for the Herd. A standout on both the court and in the classroom, he was a Rhodes Scholar finalist and received postgraduate scholarships from both the NCAA and Southern Conference.

Brannen led the Southern Conference in scoring his senior season (1996-97) by averaging 20.9 ppg and was named the league tournament MVP. He began his collegiate career at Morehead State before transferring to Marshall, where he scored 1,008 points in only two seasons.

Following graduation from Marshall, Brannen played two seasons professionally in Belgium's First Division, earning all-star honors and serving as a player-coach. Originally hailing from Covington, Ky., Brannen is married to the former Lisa Elswick. The couple is parents of two daughters, Jaylee and Katelyn.

COACHES AND STAFF

ANTOINE

Assistant Coach

Seventh Season

ALABAMA, 2004

Former Crimson Tide standout Antoine Pettway begins his fourth season as an assistant coach, and his seventh year on the Alabama men's basketball staff. Pettway was promoted to assistant coach following the 2012-13 season.

Prior to his promotion, Pettway spent three seasons as Alabama's director of operations (2010-13) after serving as an assistant coach at his alma mater for the previous two years (2008-10). The Alberta, Ala., native re-joined the Crimson Tide in the summer of 2008, after a two-year stint on the staff at Jacksonville State.

"Antoine's done a great job for us," Alabama head coach Anthony Grant said. "I think he has really grown as a coach and has prepared himself to take that next step in the coaching career. He knows what it takes at this level and I am confident that he'll step in and make a smooth transition as an assistant coach."

Pettway made his presence felt immediately on the recruiting trail, as he played an integral part in bringing the nation's 21st-ranked recruiting class in 2014.

His duties include recruiting, on-court coaching working primarily with the guards, scouting and statistical breakdown, along with other duties assigned by the head coach.

A former Crimson Tide star player, Pettway has developed a reputation for building relationships and aids the Tide greatly in its on-campus recruiting efforts. He also works with the coaching staff to develop players off the court while assisting in the day-to-day management of the program.

Pettway began his Alabama career as a walk-on with an academic scholarship before earning an athletic scholarship for his sophomore season. He was an integral part of Alabama's NCAA quarterfinal run in 2004, starting every game at point guard. That marked the third consecutive season in which he led the Tide to the NCAA Tournament.

While attending graduate school in 2005-06, Pettway began his coaching career by serving as an office assistant in the Alabama basketball office before accepting the full-time position as an assistant coach at Jacksonville State.

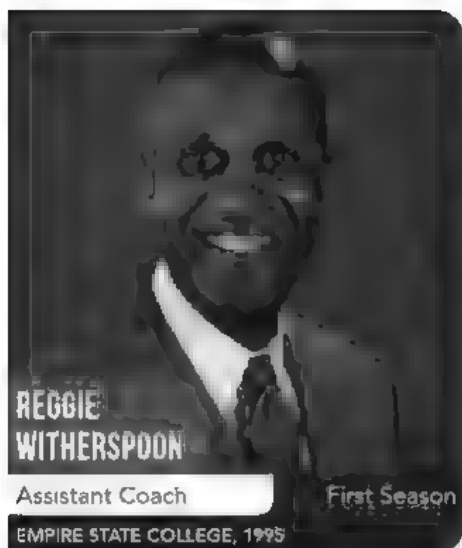

Following his graduation from the Capstone with a degree in biology, Pettway played professionally for the Huntsville Flight of the NBA Developmental League and the Kentucky Reach of the World Basketball Association. While with the Reach, he was named the league's rookie of the year in 2004.

Pettway is married to the former Kim Minor, also a University of Alabama graduate. The couple has one son, Kingston.

The Pettway family: Antoine and his wife Kim with son Kingston.

Reggie Witherspoon, who boasts nearly 30 years of coaching basketball, joined the Alabama basketball program in April of 2014. Most recently, Witherspoon spent 14 years (1999-2013) as head coach at the University of Buffalo.

"I am excited for the addition of Reggie Witherspoon to our coaching staff," Grant said. "Reggie brings a wealth of experience and coaching expertise. His abilities in developing talent and teaching the game are highly respected amongst his peers. His knowledge, combined with his impeccable character and ability to relate to and connect with people will make his transition seamless."

As the head coach at Buffalo, Witherspoon took a once struggling basketball program to new heights, leading the Bulls to 17 or more wins in seven of his final 10 seasons. Prior to his arrival, Buffalo won 17 games just nine times over the first 85 years of the program. He went on to finish his career tied for second in Buffalo program history with 198 wins (198-228).

"My wife and I are very excited to come to The University of Alabama," Witherspoon said. "I am looking forward to working with coach Grant and being a part of the rich tradition of Alabama men's basketball, as well as its storied and nationally recognized athletics program. Having seen the success that coach Grant has had as a basketball coach, it's very exciting for us to be connected with him, his family and the way he coaches the game. This is a terrific opportunity, and I am really looking forward to continuing my coaching career at Alabama."

Current UConn Athletics Director Warde Manuel, who was the AD at Buffalo from 2006-12 and worked closely with Witherspoon during that time, also had glowing remarks to say about the new Alabama assistant coach.

"Reggie Witherspoon is an outstanding coach and an even better person," Manuel said. "Reggie is someone who can recruit and coach at the highest levels. Anthony Grant has gained a valuable addition to his staff."

Witherspoon began his career at Buffalo as interim coach, which began five games into the 1999-00 season, before earning the position on a permanent basis in 2000. During his tenure, he was named the Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year on two occasions, (2004 by the league and 2012 by CollegeSportsMadness com), Mid-Major Coach of the Year (2004 by CollegeSportsMadness.com) and twice tabbed as an NABC District Coach of the Year (2005 and 2009). He led his teams to seven winning campaigns, including four seasons of 20 or more victories, and four postseason berths.

Prior to his time at the University of Buffalo, Witherspoon spent 14 years at the collegiate and high school levels where he enjoyed considerable success. He spent two-plus seasons at Erie Community College (1997-99), where he produced a 44-23 record and, in 1998-99, earned Reg on III Division I Coach of the Year honors after leading the Kats to a 24-5 record and a Region III title.

In his first season at Erie CC, Witherspoon led the program to a 19-10 record and was named Western New York Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, an honor he repeated in the 1998-99 season as well. During his tenure at ECC, Witherspoon produced four Division I players, two All-Americans and one Academic All-American.

Prior to his stint at Erie CC, Witherspoon spent a total of 13 years at Sweet Home High School, eight as an assistant and five as head coach. During his five years as head coach, his teams won four straight divisional championships, the first and only time that happened in school history. He was the first African American to be named head coach of a varsity sports program in any Western New York Suburban School District.

Witherspoon earned his associate's degree from Erie Community College and bachelor's degree in Interdisciplinary Studies from Empire State College. While at Erie Community College, he played for current Michigan head coach John Beilein.

Witherspoon and his wife, the former Dawn Taggart, have two daughters: Lydia and Rachel.

With DeNeen's help, UAB made four straight postseason appearances (one NCAA, three NIT) from 2008-11. The 2010-11 season marked the 16th time in DeNeen's career that he had been the strength coach for a men's or women's basketball team that reached postseason play.

DeNeen earlier spent a total of 13 years in two stints as head strength and conditioning coach for FIU's 17 varsity sports. He originally Morris, now in his second stint with the Crimson Tide, previously served as a graduate assistant during the 2010-11 campaign.

Prior to returning to Alabama, Morris spent one season as an assistant coach at Kennesaw State (2011-12). His return to Alabama coincides with pursuing his doctorate in human performance.

During his collegiate playing days, Morris was a starter for both Stanford University (2003-06) and the University of Washington (2007-08). After exhausting his playing eligibility, Morris returned to Stanford to finish his bachelor's degree in English literature in 2008.

Morris played professionally for FC Bayern Munich in Germany for the 2008-09 season before heading to Tuscaloosa, where he earned a master's degree in sports management in 2010.

Madison Square Garden • 13,266

After being down 11 after the first half, the Alabama men's basketball team stormed back in the second half against Drexel in the third-place game of the NIT Season Tip-Off in Madison Square Garden to force overtime.

However, after battling back throughout the night, the Crimson Tide came up just short in triple overtime, falling to the Dragons, 85-83.

This was the first triple overtime game since the 2012-13 season against LSU and the seventh in program history.

Trailing by two points with four seconds left in the third overtime, freshman center Jimmie Taylor managed to draw a foul while going to the rim, earning two free throws. Taylor missed both shots and although the Tide got the offensive rebound, they couldn't convert to force a fourth extra period.

Alabama had four players in double figures, led by forward Nick Jacobs' 23 points while Trevor Releford added 21. Retin Obasohan had 18 and Algire Key contributed 10 points.

Alabama fell at South Florida by a score of 66-64. Retin Obasohan led the Tide with a career-high 20 points, while Trevor Releford chipped in 17 points before fouling out late in the second half.

Junior guard Levi Randolph had 12 points in the loss.

The Tide led 44-40 with just over 11 minutes remaining, but USF went on a 20-8 over the next nine minutes to take a 60-52 lead with 2:31 remaining. Alabama would not quit and fought all the way back to make it a one-possession game in the final minute.

With less than 20 seconds remaining, freshman Shannon Hale came off the bench and hit a big three-point shot to cut the lead to 65-64. After one made free throw from USF, the Tide had three chances to tie or take the lead in its final possession. Randolph's initial shot was blocked, but the ball went right to Hale, who was wide open for a game-winning three, but it didn't fall. Randolph grabbed the rebound but his shot fell short as time expired.

Alabama used a strong second-half defensive effort to overcome an early deficit as the Crimson Tide defeated Robert Morris 64-56 in Coleman Coliseum to close out the non-conference portion of the 2013-14 season.

Alabama forced 12 steals, 10 in the second half, to score 26 points off turnovers. The Tide's bench played a key role as well, out-scoring the Robert Morris bench 24-6. Sophomore Retin Obasohan and junior Carl Engstrom led the Tide bench in scoring with a combined 20 points, while senior guard Trevor Releford led all players with 18 points.

The Colonials got off to a hot start scoring nine unanswered to open the game before Alabama got on the board thanks to a Rodney Cooper free throw. The Tide would continue to chip away at the lead, using a late 10-4 run to make it a three-point game at the half, trailing 23-20.

Alabama took its first lead of the game on a Releford three-pointer and never looked back. The lead stayed in the Tide's favor the rest of the game, as Alabama cruised to an eight-point victory.

SOUTH CAROLINA 67

Feb. 15, 2014 • Columbia, S.C.
Colonial Life Arena • 8,186

Trevor Releford scored 27 points, 25 of them coming in the second half but it was not enough as Alabama lost a heart breaker on the road to SEC rival South Carolina, 67-66.

Behind the play of Releford, Alabama turned a 10-point deficit with just under 12 minutes left in the game, to a four point lead with three minutes remaining.

However, the Gamecocks would rally with a tip-in offensive rebound and a pair of free throws in the last minute to put the game out of reach for good.

Freshman forward Shannon Hale scored 11 points and now has scored double-digits in eight out of 12 conference games. Junior guard Rodney Cooper also had 11 points along with team-highs of five rebounds and five assists.

Alabama shot 56.5 percent in the second half and 41.9 percent for the game. South Carolina shot 48.9 percent for the game, including 54.5 percent in the second half. The Gamecocks were led by guard Sindarius Thornwell who had 22 points and four assists.

GAME 27

MISSOURI
80Feb. 22, 2014 • Tuscaloosa, Ala.
Coleman Coliseum • 10,907

Led by a career-best 33 points from Levi Randolph, Alabama beat the Missouri Tigers, 80-73. Senior guard Trevor Releford added 18 points and a game-high six assists.

The lead went back and forth through the first nine minutes of the game before a Randolph dunk gave the Tide the lead for good. Alabama led by as many as 10 before the break and was ahead 42-35 as the first half came to an end.

Missouri wouldn't go away though, cutting Alabama's lead to one with just over seven minutes to play. At that point, the Tide's defense stiffened and Randolph and Releford, who combined to score 24 of Alabama's 38 second-half points, closed out the game strong to give the Tide the win.

Alabama shot 57.4 percent for the game, including 10-of-21 shooting from behind the three-point arc while holding Missouri to 47.9 percent shooting and 31.3 from three-point territory. Junior guard Rodney Cooper had a team-high six rebounds to go with nine points and four assists.

JAMES 'LINDY' HOOD
6-5 / Center / Collinsville, Ala.

1930

James 'Lindy' Hood became Alabama's first All-American and one of the first from the South in 1930, after leading Alabama to its only perfect season in school history at 20-0 with a 1930 Southern Conference championship. Hood originally came to Alabama as a football standout and was a member of the 1931 Rose Bowl team. While complete statistics are unavailable, there is little doubt the high level of Hood's play as he earned the honor at a time when only five players were selected to the All-America team. Hood was Alabama's lone All-American for 25 years.

JERRY HARPER
6-7 / Center / Louisville, Ky.

1955 - HELMS FOUNDATION FIRST TEAM
1956 - HELMS FOUNDATION FIRST TEAM/AAU FIRST TEAM

Center Jerry Harper became Alabama's first two-time All-American, earning the honor in 1955 and 1956. A member of the famed "Rocket 8" teams, he led Alabama to an undefeated SEC season in 1956 and a No. 5 ranking in the final Associated Press poll, Alabama's highest final ranking in school history. Harper remains the SEC's all-time leader in rebounds (1,688), rebounds per game and is sixth all-time in scoring at Alabama.

Linn averaged 22.2 points per game during his All-American season, the fifth-highest scoring average in program history. Another member of head coach Johnny Dee's "Rocket 8" team, he led the Tide to its first postseason ranking at No. 12 in 1955 before improving to a program-best No. 5 during the 1956 season, when he helped the team compile a 21-3 record and win an SEC title.

A three-year letterwinner at Alabama, he was a part of the 1957 SEC championship team and averaged 24.6 points per game, still the highest season average in Alabama history. A two-sport athlete, Kubiszyn later signed and played two Major League Baseball seasons as an infielder with the Cleveland Indians in 1961 and 1962.

1977 - CONVERSE FIRST TEAM

T.R. Dunn twice earned national honors at Alabama, the first coming in 1974 when he averaged 9.4 points and 8.0 rebounds to garner Freshman All-America accolades. His senior season, he earned the second honor by posting a career-best 40.7 points and 7.1 rebounds per game. During his career, the Tide won three SEC titles and earned NCAA berths twice. Alabama finished each of his seasons ranked in the top-15, sparked by Dunn's gritty play. Despite standing at only 6-4, he remains one of the best rebounding guards in program history with 749 career rebounds and averaged more than five per game each season.

SEC PLAYERS OF THE YEAR
WENDELL HUDSON • 1973

Wendell Hudson became Alabama's first SEC Player of the Year in 1973 after leading the league in scoring with 20.7 points per game. Hudson led Alabama to a 22-8 record, its most wins in a season at that point, and a second-place finish in the league, its highest finish in 17 seasons. In addition to his scoring, Hudson pulled down 12.1 rebounds per game. Thanks to his stellar play, the Tide made its first postseason appearance in school history with a berth in the NIT and advanced all the way to the Final Four before falling to traditional basketball powerhouse North Carolina.

REGGIE KING • 1978 • 1979

Alabama's all-time scoring leader also is its only two-time SEC player of the year, earning the award in 1978 and 1979 from the Associated Press and United Press International. Reggie King averaged more than 21 points per game in both seasons and converted on nearly 58 percent of his shots from the floor. In 1979, he scored a school-record 747 points (more than any other player in the SEC) and led the Tide to 22 wins and another NIT semifinal appearance. A year earlier, King led the league and was fourth in the nation in rebounding with 13.3 per game. King finished his career with 2,168 points, the seventh-most in NCAA history. In 1999, he was honored as Alabama's first SEC Legend.

DERRICK MCKEY • 1987

Derrick McKey was named the SEC Player of the Year in 1987 by the league's coaches, the Associated Press and the United Press International after leading one of the best Alabama teams in school history. While he didn't lead the league in any statistical categories, McKey's play sparked the Tide to the 1987 SEC Tournament title and an appearance in the NCAA "Sweet 16." Over the course of the season, he averaged 18.6 points and 7.5 rebounds per game as the Tide finished the 1986-87 season ranked No. 9 in the nation. McKey also earned SEC all-tournament honors for the second consecutive season in 1987 and was tabbed the tournament MVP.

ALL-SEC SELECTIONS

From 1933-53, the All-Southeastern Conference team was based on play in the SEC Tournament. In 1949 the Associated Press began a separate All-SEC recognition. In 1957, the SEC coaches chose an all-star following the regular season, a trend that continues today. The UPI picked an All-SEC from the 1966 season through 1991.

SEC PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

ERWIN DUDLEY • 2002

Erwin Dudley was voted the SEC's 2002 Player of the Year by the league's coaches and the Associated Press. That season, as a junior, Dudley led the Tide and the SEC in rebounding (8.9 rpg) for the second time along with his 15.2 points per game. Dudley, who started every game in his Alabama career, amassed 14 double-doubles in 2002-03 to lead Alabama to its first regular-season SEC title in 15 years and a No. 8 final national ranking.

MO WILLIAMS • 2002

Mo Williams teamed with Erwin Dudley and coach Mark Gottfried to sweep the major SEC awards in 2002 as he was named the league's Freshman of the Year. The future NBA star averaged 10.4 points and 4.5 assists per game in his freshman season and also was named the Sporting News National Freshman of the Year. He had two double-doubles (points/assists) against both Tennessee and Chattanooga and scored a season-high 17 points at Arkansas.

ALABAMA IN THE NBA

Alabama has a long and storied tradition of preparing players to compete at the highest level, with more than 20 former Crimson Tide student-athletes using their experience at the Capstone to build successful NBA careers. Alabama has seen its stars go on to win nine NBA Championships, six All-Star selections, six All-Defensive Team honors, three All-Rookie honors and more than $390 million in career earnings on the NBA hardwood. All told, Alabama players have gone on to suit up in more than 10,000 NBA games and scored more than 90,000 points.

ALABAMA'S SEVEN-TIME NBA WORLD CHAMPION

Any discussion of Alabama's place in the NBA begins and ends with seven-time NBA world champion Robert Horry. Horry starred at Alabama from 1989-92 before the Houston Rockets selected him with the 11th pick of the 1992 draft. Two years later, he led Houston to the first of back-to-back titles before moving on to Los Angeles, where he helped the Lakers win three consecutive titles in 2000, 2001 and 2002. Three seasons later he was with the San Antonio Spurs when they won titles in 2005 and 2007. Only six players in NBA history have won more titles than Horry and he is the first player since 1976 to win more than six titles. He also is just one of only two players in NBA history to play for three different franchises that won NBA titles. Horry finished his career as the NBA all-time leader in playoff games, appearing in 244 games, seven more than Kareem Abdul-Jabbar. Along the way, he set the NBA Finals record for steals in a game with seven against the Orlando Magic in the 1995 Finals. His 261 three-pointers in playoff action rank as the second-most in NBA playoff history while his 40 in the Finals are the NBA record.

NBA HONORS AND AWARDS

Alabama has developed a legacy of producing top-tier NBA talent, with four Tide players going on to play in a total of seven NBA All-Star Games. Latrell Sprewell leads the way, garnering All-Star selections in 1994, 1995, 1997 and 2001. His 1994 All-Star selection was the first by a former Crimson Tide player but not the last, as he was joined in 2001 by Antonio McDyess. In 2009, Mo Williams became another Alabama product to put on an All-Star jersey while in 2010 Gerald Wallace became the first Charlotte Bobcat to earn the honor.

As a member of the Bobcats, Wallace became the franchise's first NBA All-Star in 2010. He began the 2011-12 with the Trail Blazers before being traded to the New Jersey Nets. Wallace signed a four-year deal on July 11, 2012, to rejoin the Nets, who now are based out of Brooklyn. He then was part of a blockbuster trade that sent him to the Boston Celtics prior to the 2013-14 season.
